On which day, being the first meeting of this General Assembly, pursuant to the appointment of the late Convention, the members who appeared having taken the oath directed by law, which was administered by the Privy, Council, repaired to their seats in the House of Delegates. Mr. Treasurer reminded the House of the necessity of proceeding to the choice of a Speaker, and moved that Edmund Pendleton, Esq who had before presided over the Convention with ability and integrity, should take the chair of the House as Speaker; and thereupon the said Edmund Pendleton, Esq. was elected without opposition, and conducted to the Chair, from whence he made his acknowledgments to the House for the honour they had again conferred on him. Ordered, That the several officers of the late Convention be continued officers of this House. Ordered, That the Chaplain attend to read prayers every morning at seven o clock, and that Mr. Braxton do wait on the Senate and acquaint them therewith. The Speaker laid before the House a scheme of trade proposed by the Commissioners of the Navy, and approved by the Governour and Privy Council, with their request that this House would assist in carrying the same into execution; which being read, Resolved, That this House do approve of the said scheme, and that the Treasurer do pay info the hands of the Governour and Council the sum...
