Not illustrated. 1893 Excerpt: .led them to cling to the cross for their own salvation, but whose love has been so cold that they have never striven to hold out a helping hand to draw others to the same sure refuge. Nor will there be much gladness in the heart of that man or woman who has to remember how carefully all offerings for Christ s work on earth, and missions in particular, were so regulated as never to involve the sacrifice of any social luxury. So many people have the habit of calling their small change their mite, that they really seem to persuade themselves that there is a certain value in offering very small sums; they forget that the widow s two pence were specially blessed because they were actually all her possessions, and the gift bespoke sure faith in the Giver of daily bread. Of the lad...
