For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. An unwonted commotion against Papal aggression now agitates England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales, from North to South, from East to West. In this popular commotion Protestants should carefully guard against all possible occasion of misapprehension or misrepresentation of the motives by which they are actuated, should prayerfully seek the mind of the Spirit in the Volume of Revelation, and should implicitly submit in all things to the word and will of God. This conflict must not be considered a contest for priority or precedence between two contending hierarchies, but a combination of all, who love the glorious Reformation, to vindicate Protestant truth against Papal superstition, apostasy, and usurpation. In this conflict our condemnation should be directed exclusively against the Roman Catholic Apostasy, rather than against the sincere but misguided adherents of the Papacy, deluded thereby, and led captive by Satan at his will, whom we should love, compassionate, pray for, and labour to convert and save.
