Summary: This book presents Russian and English versions of three old stories. Each of them has a hidden meaning, which makes reader think hard trying to find it. First story is about a bird that lives in a golden cage and seems to have everything but freedom. Will she get it? The second tale is about a scholar and his way to wisdom. And the last story gives some good advice coming from a bird. We hope you will enjoy the fairy tales together with the quotes that precede them.
