Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Ten Years Report of the American Society for the Extension of University Teaching, 1890-1900 Report of the Directors to the Members of The American Society for the Extension of University Teaching on Ten Years Work in the Period from 1890 to 1900 In 1878, Sidney Lanier, writing on the subject of lecturing said: During my studies for the last six or eight months, a thought which was at first vague, has slowly crystallized into a purpose of quite decisive aim. The lectures which I was invited to deliver last winter before a private class, met with such an enthusiastic reception as to set me thinking very seriously of the evident delight with which grown people found themselves receiving systematic instruction in a definite study. The fault of the lecture system as at present conducted - a fault which must finally prove fatal to it - is that it is too fragmentary, and presents too fragmentary a mass of facts before the hearers. Now if a scheme of lectures should be arranged which would amount i...
