Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Catskill Mountains In Summer Time, The Statesman, Lawyer, Merchant, man of Trade. Pants for the refuge of some rural shade, Where all his long anxieties forgot Amid the charms of a sequester d spot. Or recollected only to gild o er And add a smile to what was sweet before, He may possess the joys he thinks he sees, Lay his old age upon the lap of Ease, Improve the remnant of his wasted span, And having lived a Trifler, die a man. The wisdom and value of the annual summer rest is no longer a subject of question requiring any extended demonstration. Originating in a mere social fad, to gratify the demands of wealth, or satisfy the insatiable longings of those who rarely become tired, it has now become a hygienic necessity in the physical and mental economy of man which we can ignore only at our peril. If earlier generations knew nothing of summer vacations, or found little need of them, it was because they took more time to live and labored more...
