Blind Justice: A William Monk Novel

By Perry, Anne.

Ballantine. 1 Paperback(s), 2012. soft. Book Condition: New. In this 19th case (following A Sunless Sea) featuring the amnesiac detective William Monk, the wife Hester questions the finances of a London church whose members' hard-earned charitable gifts appear to have ended up in the pocket of charismatic preacher Abel Taft. Barrister Oliver Rathbone, newly appointed a judge, is chosen to preside over Taft's trial. It seems clear that he is indeed guilty until the defense produces a last-second witness who completely undermines the charges. Then Rathbone makes a well-meaning but reckless move that could ruin his career, his reputation and his life. Justice, law, and morality hang in the balance as Hester and Monk race to save their distinguished friend Rathbone from disgrace. No one else recreates the atmosphere of gas-lit London quite like Anne Perry, creator of both the Thomas and Charlotte Pitt series and the William and Hester Monk series of Victorian-era detective fiction. "Those who love Victorian England will relish Ms. Perry's presentation of period details. Her mastery of this time and place gives credence to the characters' moral and legal struggles." NY Journal of Books 326.
