Excerpt: . . . roof over the auditorium and the entire main floor of the auditorium and vestibule, also the entire second floor of the building, over the entrance, all lobbies and corridors and all galleries in the auditorium shall be of iron and steel and fireproof materials. In the Dewey they are constructed entirely of wood. I found the Dewey in absolute violation of the law. So far as the theatre law goes, it is absolutely in violation--criminally. Mr. Moss--1Without going into detail, I will put in evidence the, program which Mr. Miller obtained at his visit, together with hs statement of those violations. The Witness--It is all absolutely so. In making application for a permit to the building department on the 22d of October, 1896, the architect stated: That stage and stage scenery will not be employed. Large hall is to be used mainly as a beer garden. No theatrical or operatic performance will take place. . (Signed) D. N. B. STURGIS. On April 4, 1899, the same architect declares in an application for a permit to make alterations: That this place will not be run for operatic or theatrical performances, and stage scenery and appurtenances of a theatrical or operatic stage will not be provided. This is absolutely false, for the stage at present is provided with curtains, drop scenes and stage settings, the same as any other theatre, as most of the officials of the present department of buildings very well know. Assuming its...
