Why Nudge?: The Politics of Libertarian Paternalism (Hardback)

By Cass R. Sunstein

Yale University Press, United States, 2014. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The bestselling author of Simpler offers a powerful, provocative, and convincing argument for protecting people from their own mistakes. Based on a series of pathbreaking lectures given at Yale University in 2012, this powerful, thought-provoking work by national best-selling author Cass R. Sunstein combines legal theory with behavioral economics to make a fresh argument about the legitimate scope of government, bearing on obesity, smoking, distracted driving, health care, food safety, and other highly volatile, high-profile public issues. Behavioral economists have established that people often make decisions that run counter to their best interests—producing what Sunstein describes as behavioral market failures. Sometimes we disregard the long term; sometimes we are unrealistically optimistic; sometimes we do not see what is in front of us. With this evidence in mind, Sunstein argues for a new form of paternalism, one that protects people against serious errors but also recognizes the risk of government overreaching and usually preserves freedom of choice. Against those who reject paternalism of any kind, Sunstein shows that choice architecture—government-imposed structures that affect our choices—is inevitable, and hence that a...
