After a lusty night with a hot pole dancer, billionaire Peyton Lang and local dance teacher, Fuchsia Quinn s worlds are about to collide. Less EXCERPT Once settled, she closed her eyes and inhaled a few deep breaths. One helluva crappy night. Could it get any worse? She opened her eyes and blinked. The man in the booth across from her seemed familiar. She frowned as she tried to place him. A flutter in her belly and a clench in her pussy told her that her had body guessed who it was before she did. Big Tipper. She smiled. His face wore the same surprised look she assumed was on hers. He grinned back and tilted his head toward her booth. She nodded, fighting down a teenage urge to giggle hysterically as he settled across from her. He had to be a bit over six feet tall and maybe a year older than her. Short dark hair topped a scruffy unshaven chin. A quick check of his left hand showed no wedding band or tan line. Can I say? Or maybe, should I say, I m not stalking you. This is a cool coincidence. When I left the club, I asked the cabbie where to get a late night snack, and he brought me here. Cab 23? Big Tipper nodded. That s Amando. He usually drives me here and then home. He raised an eyebrow. Boyfriend? No. Flame chuckled. In every sense of the word. He s a friend, and I m not seeing anyone at the moment. Wagging his eyebrows, Big Tipper said, Well then, let me be thoroughly...
