Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Lincoln Book of Poems Open to the gentle touch of every tiny breeze That drifts along the river o'er the fields and trees; Atune to every breath of wind that wavers on the hill, A breath of harmony and song, that breaths above the rill. Aeolian Harp of highly tempered, vibrant strings; Aeolian Harp that whispers, cries, and laughs, and sings Athrough the sunny day, and through the wind tossed night; An answering chord of sympathy to every breath - or dark or light! Open, his heart to every gentle touch of every tiny pain That came into the childish heart when baby hopes were slain; Atune to every cruel hurt that moaned athrough the land, A soothing touch beside white cots, of rough yet gentle hand; Aeolian Harp of highly tempered, vibrant strings Responding quick to all the pain of bitter things That came to weary hearts; with joy responding to the breeze Of joy that played in laughter in and out among the happy leaves. And then in turn wept bitter tears with every Mother's pain, Because of brother, father, son, in cruel battle slain. Ah, Harp atune to every wind that blows along the hill; Ah, Heart that vibrates to the pulse of every human ill!
