Reviews

*This pdf might be well worth a study, and a lot better than other. It really is simplistic but excitement inside the fifty percent in the book. Its been printed in an exceedingly straightforward way which is just after i finished reading this ebook through which really modified me, modify the way i believe.

On the 19th April, 1900, a Loan Exhibition of Historical Articles was opened by the members of the First Evangelical Congregational Church. This building of the Public Library, in which this paper is read, opened 11th June, 1904, provided a room to accommodate such articles of local interest as might be given into the charge of the library trustees. The trustees realized that the time would come when these would be too numerous for this room, but felt that in the absence of a local historical society some opportunity to accumulate and protect such articles should be provided. We will turn now to the Milton Educational Society. Founded 2d October, 1900, it changed its title to Milton Education Society during the winter of 1902-1903. One of the committees of that Society, known as the Historical Committee, and consisting of Dr. Freeland D.Leslie, Mr. Hiram Tuell, and Miss Alma G.Pierce, at a meeting held 28th November, 1904, reported unanimously in favor of the incorporation of an historical society to devote its entire energy to the cause of getting together and preserving everything bearing on the history of the town. A letter from Mrs. Adeline D.T. Whitney was read, favoring this course. Mr. Don Gleason Hill, Town Clerk of Dedham, urged the value of an historical society with its facts and property well classified and arranged for reference. Several others spoke in favor. Articles of agreement were then signed by...
